e-LEARNING INFORMATION SHEET

Ethics and Bariatric Care

The following is a listing of some websites, texts, videos, courses, conferences and articles that have been identified as a result of literature or web searches on this topic. The views expressed in these sources are those of the authors or presenters and do not necessarily reflect MB-PHEN positions or perspectives. If you have any suggestions or ideas to help us update this Information Sheet, please contact MB-PHEN at 204-926-7124 or ethics@wrha.mb.ca.

SPECIALIZED WEBSITES

http://www.obesitynetwork.ca/

TEXT

ARTICLES & PACKAGES

Thiele, T. & Ostereicher, A. (2011). Caring for your bariatric patient: A resource guide to the literature on care of the morbidly obese. Bariatric Nursing and Surgical Patient Care, 6(1). Pp. 43-47. This is an excellent list of resources, including a list of articles on respectful care of obese patients. It was compiled by the Project Coordinator and the Librarian at Deer Lodge Centre, which is the centre of excellence for long-term chronic care of bariatric patients in Winnipeg.

WRHA Bariatric Resource Manual Overview:

WRHA Bariatric Care Steering Committee is developing a work plan to implement Bariatric Clinical Practice Guidelines. The link to the Canadian CPG guidelines is found at http://www.cmaj.ca/cgi/data/176/8/S1/DC1/1.